collects and processes the person-related data of applicants for the purpose of carrying out application procedures according to Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. b GDPR and §26 Para. 1 BDSG-neu (German Federal Data Protection Act new). Processing that goes beyond this does not take place or takes place only with your consent according to Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. a GDPR.

If those responsible for the processing conclude an employment contract with the applicant, the transmitted data is processed further, under observation of the legal regulations, for the purpose of carrying out the employment relationship.

If those responsible for the processing do not conclude an employment contract with the applicant, the application documents are deleted automatically six months after the rejection is communicated

Furthermore, during the application procedure you have the following rights in relation to those responsible according to Section 3 GDPR:

information, correction, deletion, blocking, transfer of data as well as the right to limitation of the processing. Equally, you have the right to receive a copy of the data that you have provided in a structured, accessible and machine-suitable format. There is also a right to withdrawal of your consent and objection to processing as well as the right to complain to the regulatory authority.

A withdrawal of the consent to processing must be communicated to those responsible. In this case, your application can no longer be considered in the application procedure.
